

Bueter

Randall S. Bueter of Wilson and Associates has been appointed to the House Committee by President-Elect Richard L. Ramsay of Little Rock. The appointment becomes effective during the Association's 2007 Annual Meeting this month.

Bueter has also been appointed to the Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee.

Jennifer Wilson-Harvey of Wilson and Associates has been appointed to the Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee by Ramsay as well. Her appointment also becomes effective during the annual meeting.

The Arkansas Bar Association is a voluntary, statewide Association with more than 5,000 attorney members. The association and its members participate in a variety of programs and services for the legal profession and society. Among the purposes of the Association are advancing the administration of justice in Arkansas and fostering high ideals of integrity, learning and public service among its members. The Arkansas Bar Association was founded in 1898.

Wilson