

Woman honored for work with ADA

Jennifer Wilson Harvey, of Little Rock, was honored for her work with the American Diabetes Association at a fund raising dinner and auction at the Arkansas Governor's Mansion on Sept. 7.

Gov. Mike Harvey
Beebe and

Arkansas First Lady Ginger Beebe greeted arriving guests and the governor introduced the honoree.

Guests wore western garb — jeans, boots and hats — to celebrate the theme of the occasion, "Going Country for a Cure."

The event raised more than $90,000 for diabetes research. Harvey is the daughter of Jerry and Jill Watkins of El Dorado. Sponsors for the event included Wilson's law firm, Wilson and Associates, the Murphy Foundation, Moore Stevens Frost Financial Group, Snell Prosthetic & Orthotic Laboratory, the Walton Family Trust and OneBanc.

9/14/07